

Henrietta J. Tice

Henrietta Tice was born and raised in Orlando, Fl. She is the mother of two, grandmother of eleven, and the great grandmother of one. Henrietta may be the biological mother of two, but she is a mother to over 400 children living in the Orlando neighborhoods. Henrietta enjoys cooking, traveling, and family oriented activities. Her favorite pass time is getting together with family, friends and neighbors for a variety of fun and leisure activities.

Henrietta's favorite quote is "If you haven't done all you can do, then don't complain".

Henrietta graduated from Maynard Evans High and has continued to take courses with emphasis in prevention practices, public relations and community development. Henrietta has been very active in her community for many years and is respected as a community leader. She has volunteered in many capacities, as a cheerleading coach, Officers of PTAs, and Advisory Board Members.

She is the creator and founder of Village House Program, Center for Drug Free Living Inc, and Co-founder of "The Gathering of Men and Boys". She also started her homeowners association and makes sure that it is driven by the love of neighbors. She is also the CEO of Candy Apples from Candy Land.

She has received many awards, but that's not what keeps her going, for the Love of People is what she represents and inspires her to continue to do all that she can do.
