

The 26th Annual Women's Resource Center

Reception and Awards Ceremony – October 2010 (details to follow)

Junior Summit Nomination Form

Our Mission: The Central Florida Women's Resource Center supports our community by recognizing the power of women; celebrating women's achievements; connecting with and encouraging other women's organizations; and identifying, impacting and supporting women's social, educational, health, political, economic, spiritual and artistic issues.

Basic Criteria: The nominee must be between the ages of 21 years to 30 years of age as of nomination deadline. Candidates should have already contributed significantly to their community and should have the potential to do much more in future years. Nominee cannot be a current Women's Resource Center board member or a current Women's Resource Center advisory board member. Nominees are considered based on their countless hours of non-job related community service that has positively impacted our community, their support of women's issues and role model for others. This nomination form will be the sole criteria for whether or not your candidate is selected, so please be as complete as possible. Be sure to show how the nominee has impacted the Central Florida community.

The deadline for nominations is June 21, 2010

While some nominees are well known, Summit Award winners are considered based on your detailed responses to the following questions and will help us get to know your nominee and their contributions to the community. Please use a separate piece of paper if necessary. Be sure to show how the nominee has impacted the Central Florida community. A current resume MUST be attached.

1. What impact has the Nominee had on the people, organizations, or community at large? Please also specifically list whom the Nominee has impacted.
2. How does the Nominee motivate and inspire others?
3. What special qualities make this Nominee stand out?
4. Every Nominee is worthy of recognition. What makes the accomplishments of the Nominee more significant than others?

Please attach a resume, listing the Nominee's individual talents and dedication to our community. Be sure to show how the nominee has impacted the Central Florida community.
